

Pet Insurance is recommended in case an unexpected accident or illness arises you don't want to find yourself with a large veterinary bill to get your pet back to good health. It's comforting to know that if something does happen, you are able to help your fur-baby without the high unplanned cost of medical bills.

Here are three pet insurances that are ranked the highest for service, premiums and coverage

HEALTHY PAWS = Great customer service, annual deductible and unlimited lifetime benefits. You can choose how to pay by deciding your annual deductible and the percentage of the vet bill that you'll be reimbursed for when you sign-up for the initial plan.
